

Brigade Group Acquires Land Parcel on Kanakapura Road for Premium Residential Development with GDV of Approx. Rs. 400 Crores

Bengaluru, July 29, 2026: Brigade Group has announced the outright purchase of a 2-acre land parcel on Kanakapura Road in South Bengaluru. The company will develop a premium residential project on the site with an estimated Gross Development Value (GDV) of approximately Rs. 400 Crores. Strategically located on one of South Bengaluru's most sought-after residential corridors, the project will offer homes that blend contemporary living with spaces that foster connectivity, wellness, and long-term value.

Commenting on the acquisition, Amar Mysore, Executive Director, Brigade Enterprises Limited, said, "Kanakapura Road has emerged as a key growth corridor in Bengaluru, driven by expanding infrastructure, improved connectivity and rising demand from homebuyers seeking a quality living environment. This acquisition aligns with our long-term residential strategy of deepening our presence in high-potential micro-markets and creating communities that are designed for the way people aspire to live. We are increasingly seeing demand for homes that offer access to quality social infrastructure and foster meaningful community experiences."

With a strong pipeline of developments across key cities in the country, Brigade Group remains committed to creating landmark developments that combine design excellence, quality construction, and sustainable living.
